

WHISTLEBLOWER SECURITY NATIONAL REPORT

41%

or 64 million working Americans are aware of wrongdoing committed at their place of work

78%

are likely to blow the whistle

THE TOP THREE TYPES OF ORGANIZATIONAL WRONGDOING WITNESSED BY EMPLOYEES ARE:

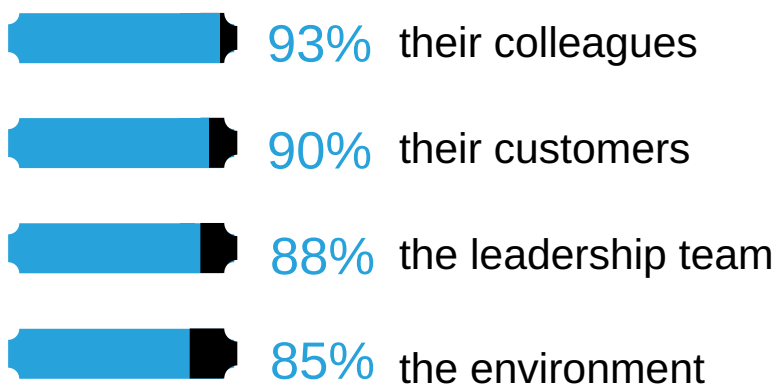

38%
Discrimination

38%
Health & Safety
Violations

36%
Sexual Harassment

92% say employees should speak up and report wrongdoing

EMPLOYEES ARE MOST LIKELY TO REPORT WRONGDOING IF IT AFFECTS:

 89%

of American employees believe their employers use unethical or illegal practices that only employees know about

 ... 94% say employers should put safeguards in place to protect employees

if they don't

32%  believe the organization 'probably has something to hide'

IF A WHISTLEBLOWER HOTLINE IS NOT AVAILABLE TO EMPLOYEES, THEY WILL MAKE THEIR CONCERNS PUBLIC BY SHARING WITH:

46%
Friends/Family

14%
Industry
Officials

9%
Lawyers

5%
Media

5%
Social Media

18-34 YEARS OLDS
SEE MORE, FEAR MORE AND TELL MORE

Greater fears of retaliation

Tell twice as many people

3x more likely to share on social